

I am a senior
underwriting assistant.
I am Christine.

I am a team player and strive to go the extra mile for my colleagues and business partners.

I provide administrative support and serve as the liaison point between my team and our brokers to ensure quality work is delivered in a timely manner. Time management, content accuracy and effective communication are critical qualities in my role.

Working with a team of talented individuals also keeps me motivated and inspired to further excel in my work.
