

I am an assistant
manager in travel.
I am Lynnette.

I believe in knowledge sharing. A team is as strong as its weakest member. It is important that everyone in the team shares their knowledge and work experiences with new team members.

As a team, we also create an environment where everyone is encouraged to ask questions and keep each other updated with the latest news and information relating to our line of work.

My colleagues call me the “Travel Encyclopedia”.
