

I am a claims officer. I am Truc.

Open communication, strong numerical and analytical skills, and problem solving skills are key attributes required in my role.

I ensure that claims are processed accurately and efficiently, delivering a consistent level of service and satisfaction to all my stakeholders.

My adaptability and problem skills contributes greatly to the smooth operation of the claims team. I take initiative to seek effective solutions for problems identified, and enhance efficiency in the claims process through regular discussions with my team to find out their support needs.
