

Chubb Elite II Association Liability Insurance

CHUBB®

The Chubb Elite Association Liability Insurance Policy is specially created to provide protection to non-profit associations, their directors, principal and employees against the potential civil liability they face in the daily conduct of the Association's objectives.

Non-profit associations are usually funded through donations, and operations are run on a tight budget. Help your clients avoid placing the Association's assets and their employees' personal assets at risk with the Chubb elite Association Liability Insurance Policy.
